

A REBEL ARMY ROUTED!

TWELVE THOUSAND INSURGENTS FOR DE COMBAT.

EFFECTIVE ARTILLERY FIRE FROM PORT VALERIEN—TEN THOUSAND MEN CUT OFF FROM THE CITY—ONE GENERAL KILLED—EXCITEMENT IN PARIS.

PARIS, Monday Evening, April 3, 1871. About 4 o'clock, yesterday afternoon, after great preparations, the National insurgents commenced passing out at Neuilly gate, in all 50,000 men. Gen. Bergeret, Flourens, and Menotti Garibaldi commanding. It was understood that Port Valerien would not fire. About 6 o'clock the artillery was all in front and Gen. Bergeret in advance with 10,000 men when suddenly Valerien opened fire killing Commandant Henry. Gen. Bergeret had just got out of his carriage, when the vehicle was smashed by a bombshell. The wildest scene ensued. The troops retreated. The main body left Bergeret alone with 10,000 men. He tried to fight with field artillery against Valerien, but it was useless. The Communists got into the city, but Bergeret and his men are cut off and cannot pass Valerien. The main body escaped with the loss of 100; but Bergeret must lose large numbers. Altogether there are 12,000 men killed, wounded and missing, including Bergeret's force. The Communist troops under arms number 150,000. Tremendous excitement prevails.

PARIS BEFORE THE BATTLE.

THE COMMITTEE'S MISSION—TROOPS MOVING OUT—MORE STARTLING DECREES.

LONDON, Monday, April 3, 1871. A dispatch from Paris foretells that the Commune has issued a proclamation couched in the following language:

"Attacked by the Versailles Government, we have a mission to protect the city, and count upon the aid of the citizens."

There was a continual movement of the Communal forces during the night, and a distant cannonade was audible this morning. The rattle is beating everywhere throughout the city.

The Paris Commune has issued a decree, arraigning Thiers, Favre, Picard, Dufaure, Simon, and Pothuan before the tribunal of the people, and ordering their property to be seized. Another decree pronounces the separation of the Church and State, suppresses the religious bodies, and abolishes national property.

A dispatch from Versailles to-day says Marshal MacMahon has been appointed Commander-in-Chief of the French army.

A dispatch from Brussels, 3d, says the second sitting of the Peace Conference was held to-day.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

GERMANY.

THE EMPEROR'S REPLY TO THE CONGRATULATORY ADDRESS.

BERLIN, Monday, April 3, 1871. The Emperor William in replying to the congratulatory address voted by the Reichstag, thanks that body for its loyalty and devotion to the German Empire, and points to the visible guidance of God in the events of the recent war. He says, "The condition of France is owing to the revolutions of 50 years," and expresses the belief that "German nationality in Alsace and Lorraine has been merely defeated and not destroyed during the compulsory union of these provinces with France." The Emperor concludes as follows: "Being an old man, I merely lay the foundation of the Empire which my successor must complete."

HAYTI.

KINGSTON, April 3.—According to advices from Hayti to the 1st inst., there is much discontent with the President, because his Secretary favors Dominican annexation. The President's life is threatened. Some Haytian merchants have purchased the steamer Hornet, and the crew has gone to New-York. The Government being considered unstable, sold has advanced suddenly from 20 to 40. There were several advances recently on the London market. In one of these a recent, supposed to be Biaz, was killed.

THE NEW DOMINION.

OTTAWA, April 3.—The Hon. Mr. Tupper, during the debate on the subject of the annexation of British Columbia, on Saturday, argued that the superiority of the Canadian route for a Pacific Railroad was indisputable, and that the alternate blocks of land, which would be the property of the Government, would realize enough to discharge its pecuniary obligations. Respecting the route, he expressed the belief that the Northern Pacific Company, who would have nearly 1,000 miles of desert to run through, would never (seeing Canada was determined to push a route through the States) have been able to reach Pembina. They would extend their line from Georgetown to Pembina, and thence to the Red River, but it would never, he thought, be carried into effect, in view of the far superior prospect of our Dominion Road.

MISCELLANEOUS CABLE DISPATCHES.

The Italian Chambers have adjourned until the 12th inst.

The English Foreign Office yesterday received despatches from the British Legation at Paris dated the 16th of March, reporting that was 1871.

A dispatch from Bucharest says Prince Charles has postponed his abdication of the throne of Rumania until the result of an election for King of Rumania is known.

WASHINGTON.

The Santo Domingo report not ready yet—NO DISAGREEMENT AMONG THE COMMISSIONERS—SPECULATIONS CONCERNING THE PRESIDENT'S INTENTIONS—THE NEW-YORK APPOINTMENTS.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.)

WASHINGTON, Monday, April 3, 1871. The Santo Domingo report is not yet finished, but those who have been meeting with the views of the Commissioners believe that there is not the slightest variation in the general views of the members, and that the report, when finally finished and signed, will be as favorable to annexation as the first report prepared by Mr. Wade. The report which will be presented to the President, will be more full in details, will embrace more subjects, and give more space to discussion of the subjects laid down in the resolutions of Congress than the report which was first considered. It seemed doubtful yesterday, that the Commissioners were in full accord, but the intimate friends of all the Commissioners say that there will be no disagreement, and that the report will be mainly straightforward and emphatic, and not a meaningless recital of what was seen and heard by Commissioners in making their investigation. One of the Commissioners says that any one who reads the report cannot be in doubt as to the opinions and views of the members. The report is now being, and a meeting of Commissioners to-morrow will determine the whole subject. A sufficient number of clerks are now engaged in arranging the documentary evidence and testimony of witnesses, which the investigation elicited, and all the documents and testimony, enough to make a large book will be ready for the printer by time the report shall be handed in. There is a great difference of opinion as to what the President will do with the report, and once in his hands, he will, of course, transmit it at once to Congress, but the friends of the Administration and the leading Republicans are in doubt as to the wise course for the President to pursue. Some assert that the maintenance intact of the Republic is far more important than Santo Domingo, and it is believed that the annexation scheme, if pressed, will irretrievably divide the party. Republicans holding these views think the President ought to send the report to Congress with a message, saying sub-

CONNECTIONS.

A REPUBLICAN TRIUMPH.

JEWELL ELECTED—TWO, AND POSSIBLY THREE REPUBLICAN MEMBERS OF CONGRESS.

THE REPEATERS DEFEATED—REPUBLICAN REJOICINGS.

NEW-HAVEN, April 3—11 p. m.—The Republicans here are exceedingly jubilant. Their headquarters at Brewster Hall is surrounded with an immense crowd, who make the city ring with cheers as the returns come in.

Tammam's effort to buy up the State of Connecticut with money stolen from the tax-payers of New-York, has ignominiously failed. The horde of repeaters which were sent here to corrupt the ballot-box, were blocked in their game through the vigilance of Capt. Charles N. Brackett, Capt. James, Charles Root, Capt. Charles N. Costello, Lewis Jones, Charles Sanford and others, who stood watch at all the leading points on the New-Haven Railroad, and telegraphed to each other the movements of the different gangs.

They did not succeed in getting in 100 votes in the entire State. Several New-Haven repeaters undertook to initiate the Tammany game of repeating, but most of them were arrested, and are now in jail. One of the significant features of the Republican victory is the defeat of "Boss" Tweed's particular friend and right-hand man, E. A. Woodward of Greenwich, a Tammany office-holder, who ran for Senator in that district. Last year he was elected by a large majority, but the people of the XIIIth Senatorial District have concluded to send one of their own citizens to represent them this year, instead of taking an employe of Tweed's Department of Public Works.

The New-Haven repeaters fire 50 guns in the Common at midnight, in celebration of their victory.

HARTFORD, April 3.—Julius L. Strong, Republican, in the 1st Congressional District, is elected by over 600 majority. Seventy-five towns show a net Republican gain of 621. One hundred and twenty-two towns give a net Republican gain of 1,033.

R. BENT, Chairman Rep. State Com.

THE LEGISLATURE REPUBLICAN.

HARTFORD, April 3.—The Senate will stand 13 Republicans to 8 Democrats. The House of Representatives will be Republican by a small majority.

MISCELLANEOUS RETURNS.

NEW-HAVEN, April 3.—In New-Haven, Jewell, Republican, for Governor, gains 391 on the vote of last year. Twenty-one towns in New-Haven County show a gain of 31 for Jewell over last year. Jewell is probably elected.

Hartford, Democrat, for Congress, in the 11th District, is probably elected by a small majority.

NEW-HAVEN, April 3.—Returns to The Palladium show Jewell's election by about 500 majority, and Kellogg's election to Congress by 100 majority.

NEW-HAVEN, April 3.—A. B. Woodward (Rep.) is elected State Senator over E. A. Woodward (Dem.), in the XIIIth District, by about 100 majority.

HARTFORD, April 3.—One hundred and seven towns show a net Republican gain of 1,033.

HARTFORD, April 3.—Returns from all but 16 towns have been received. reckoning the votes of those towns the same as last year Jewell has 102 majority.
